The upper level has 3 good sized bedrooms (all carpeted), all with built-in wardrobes. The lounge and dining area (polished hardwood timber floors) are an open plan with a balcony looking over Denton Street to let the light filter through. You will find the practical kitchen is set in the middle, easily connected and accessed from all sides of the house.

Downstairs is the real bonus of the house with a large rumpus room and a powder room that's accessed via internal stairs. This level is perfect for a home office, studio, teenager's retreat, or guest's quarters. Not quite legal height, but with ample light and air flowing you will enjoy the extra space that creates. The tandem garage is an open plan and can accommodate 2 cars.
