A BEAUTIFUL PIECE OF HISTORY IN MARBURG!

HISTORY:

The land was originally the local blacksmith yard – a central place of importance in the local community. The house was a relocation home, from Kangaroo Point, under the Story Bridge.

THE PROPERTY:

The first owners started the fit out, including modernizing by replacing VJ boards with plaster throughout and fitting out a new kitchen and bathroom. They placed the property on the market prior to completion, and Tracie was fortunate to purchase this lovely home and place her own stamp on it. She converted what was the laundry into the powder room and relocated the laundry to the back of the house providing a flow through from the new deck and pool area to the wet areas for convenience. The addition of the deck and French doors created a fantastic alfresco entertainment area. Having a high set house made it the perfect situation to sink the pool into the deck area. Tracie added the elegant ensuite and adjacent utility room to the master. The spacious central bedroom, complete with loft, is a fun and practical space that the kids love.
