Mahina Place is centrally located within walking distance to Garden City and quick access by car to major transport corridors. Close by are at the Palmdale shops (on Logan Road) where you can access many essential shops including restaurants and a medical centre. Additionally only a few minutes drive to Mount Gravatt Plaza and Westfield Carindale. This townhouse is well positioned in the gateway of South East Brisbane. Although there is an abundance of shops, businesses, freeways and public transportation near the unit, its peaceful location and proximity to green spaces always keeps the place feeling calm and homely.
